ANALYSIS OF THE CONTENT OF BACHELORS’ TRAINING IN COMMUNICATIONS AT THE UNIVERSITIES OF THE USA

The relevance of the article. Today is characterized by great attention to the communicative component in all areas of society, because it is communication that plays an important role in the establishment of a new socio-cultural order and in the reproduction of its structures. Such challenges place rather high demands on both personal and professional qualities of future communication specialists. Therefore, the training of mobile, creative, competent, successful, competitive communication specialists in the conditions of socio-economic changes in Ukraine is the main task facing higher education. It is possible to ensure the proper quality of training of domestic communication specialists based on the creative use of pedagogical experience accumulated throughout the history of the development of education in Ukraine and foreign countries. Despite the large number of studies devoted to the actual issues of training specialists, the experience of innovative approaches to the provision of educational services in the USA has not yet been sufficiently studied. Meanwhile, the rapid application of innovation in the organization of the educational process, in particular in the field of training mobile, creative, competent, successful, competitive communication specialists, is a necessary condition for the development of Ukrainian society.

The purpose of the article — study of the experience of the USA regarding the organization of professional training of bachelors in communications, research of the content and features of the curricula of leading American educational institutions that offer education at the educational level “Bachelor of Communications” with the aim of using such approaches in the practice of Ukrainian universities.

The methodology. Analytical method, methods of description, comparison and generalization were applied for the research.

The results. The issue of training communication specialists in the leading universities of the United States of America in the bachelor’s program was considered. Data on the popularity and demand of specialists who have completed a bachelor’s degree in communications in the USA are presented. A review of the content of bachelor’s training programs in communications at more than 20 US universities was carried out. The peculiarities of bachelor’s training in communications at the University of Miami (The University of Miami) and Florida International University (Florida International University, FIU) are analyzed. Emphasis is placed on the need to study, adapt and implement the positive experience of US universities regarding the training of communication specialists in Ukrainian universities.

The scientific novelty. This study offers an analysis of the content of bachelor’s programs of leading American educational institutions that offer studies at the educational level “Bachelor of Communications” in 2023.

АНАЛІЗ ЗМІСТУ ПІДГОТОВКИ БАКАЛАВРІВ З КОМУНІКАЦІЙ В УНІВЕРСИТЕТАХ США

У статті розглядається питання підготовки фахівців з комунікацій у провідних університетах Сполучених Штатів Америки за програмою бакалавра. Наведено дані щодо популярності та попиту на спеціалістів зі ступенем бакалавра комунікацій, які закінчили американські університети. Проаналізовано особливості підготовки бакалаврів комунікацій в Університеті Маямі та Міжнародному університеті Флориди (FIU). Акцентовано на необхідності вивчення, адаптації та впровадження позитивного досвіду університетів США щодо підготовки фахівців з комунікацій у ЗВО України.

Ключові слова: комунікації, соціальні комунікації, освіта, бакалавр, фахівці з комунікацій, університет, навчальна програма, Україна, США.

Introduction. The post-industrial society has extremely actualized its communication component (Myazova, 2008). Modern new communication opportunities destroy the boundaries caused by the dimensionality of the former means of communication (Ukhanov, 2010; Cuilenburg, 2007; Sillars, Vangelisti, 2006). The global possibility of communication sets new requirements for the organization of the communication component in the activities of all firms and organizations (Orel, 2016). Therefore, the importance of communication specialists in various areas of management has increased significantly (Vickers, 2011; Miege, 1973; Lasswell, Smith, Casey, 1946; Lasswell, 1948; Yakymenko, 2013).

Related works. Scientists in their psychological and pedagogical researches (S. Maksymenko, V. Semychenko, L. Mitina, V. Rubtsov, etc.) emphasize that the process of knowledge transfer, formation of skills, abilities, competencies in social communication should be one of the leading tasks of professional training of future specialists.

The analysis of the scientific literature on the topic of the study showed that in Ukraine some aspects of the problem of training bachelors in the field of communication have been studied by domestic scientists: N. Yakymenko (Yakymenko, 2013), H. Pocheptsov (Pocheptsov, 2009), O. Matvienko, M. Tsyvin (Matvienko, Tsyvin, 2016), A. Solianyk (Solianyk, 2016) and many others.

The purpose of the study. The purpose of the article is to study the US experience in organizing professional training of bachelors in communications, to study the content and features of the curricula of leading American educational institutions offering the Bachelor of Communications degree, with a view to using such approaches in the practice of Ukrainian universities.
